Many
buttons.

Many colors, many desires, many tastes, many different utilities.

All different, all equally important.

But it is only together, with each one in his/her place, that they multiply their value, their importance and make their defects disappear.

Like so many different tiles, they form a magnificent mosaic.

Just like many people, all different,
staying in the right place, they form a team, a choir, an orchestra, a people, a nation.

...and you are one of them!
